

Community-Engaged Alliance

EXCLUSIVE PARTNERSHIP BENEFITS

Community-Engaged Alliance invests in its partners through trainings, grants, and professional development. Through that support, administrators, faculty, staff, and community partners are able to make a difference for tens of thousands of community members and students each year.

WHO ARE WE?

Community-Engaged Alliance (CEA) may be a new name, but you have been working with us for years. For three decades, CEA partner institutions have benefited from programs, grants, recognition, and customizable tools that were all developed specifically for you and managed by Indiana staff.

FUNDING FOR PROJECTS

Partner campuses are eligible to apply for grants of up to $10,000 for students, faculty, staff, administrators, and community partners.

FREE EVENTS FOR PARTNERS ONLY

Partner campuses are invited to the partners only Annual Fall Retreat and to regionally focused initiatives such as Carnegie Classification workshops.

FREE PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Partner campuses are eligible to join the Congress of Leaders community of practice and receive expert consultations on your campus.

DEEPLY DISCOUNTED REGISTRATION RATES

Partner campuses are able to attend premier events such as the Annual Summit and Research Symposium and the -Developing Publicly Engaged Scholars Series at one-third the general admission costs.
